

MAYORAL PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Alan White, is considered by many to be one of the greatest rock drummers of all-time; and

WHEREAS, Alan has over forty-plus years of performance experience and appearances on over fifty albums; and

WHEREAS, Alan's dossier reads like a who's-who of rock legends; and

WHEREAS, Alan with his consummate professionalism and easy-going nature, continues to be an inspiration to fellow musicians as well as fans; and

WHEREAS, Alan was raised near Newcastle England and in a "roundabout" way ended up in Newcastle, Washington with his wife Gigi; and

WHEREAS, Alan said in a recent radio interview that when he moved to this area it was called Renton but he claims he talked to "the Man" and had the name changed to Newcastle; and

WHEREAS, Alan said in a recent newspaper interview that Newcastle, Washington is like a little village in England where everybody seems to know everybody in the area; and

WHEREAS, Alan, in the spirit of volunteerism and good cheer is the headliner for Newcastle Days; and

WHEREAS, we are proud and grateful that Alan and Gigi call Newcastle their home.

NOW, THEREFORE, DO I, John D. Dulcich, Mayor of the City of Newcastle, Washington, proclaim the 12th Day of September now and ever after to be in the City of Newcastle, Washington

ALAN WHITE DAY

Signed this 12th day of September, 2010

John D. Dulcich, Mayor
City of Newcastle, Washington